

Montreal International Documentary Festival Press Screenings

Monday, October 31, 10 a.m. – Cinéma du Parc (3575 avenue du Parc)

Crazy Horse*, by Frederick Wiseman

France/United States | 2010 | 134 min. | original French version with English subtitles

Backstage at the Crazy Horse, a Parisian cabaret offering the most extravagant strip show in the world. Wiseman's most glamorous film.

Crazy Horse is RIDM's opening film on November 9 at the Monument-National (Ludger-Duvernay Theatre).

The film will be released theatrically on November 25 at Cinéma du Parc.

Tuesday, November 1, 9:30 a.m. – Cinéma ONF (1564 Saint-Denis)

L'empire du milieu du sud (The Empire of Mid-South)*, by Eric Deroo and Jacques Perrin

France | 2010 | 86 min. | original French version with English subtitles

Lyrical fresco tracing Vietnam's colonial history using remarkable, never-before-seen archives. A superb film by Jacques Perrin.

Presented as a CANADIAN PREMIERE in the Panorama section as a Special Presentation.

Wednesday November 2, 9:30 a.m. – Cinéma ONF (1564 Saint-Denis)

Tahrir, Place de la Libération*, by Stefano Savona

France/Italy | 2011 | 91 min. | original Arabic version with French subtitles

An immersion into the heart of the Egyptian revolution by a gifted filmmaker. Unforgettable.

Presented as a CANADIAN PREMIERE, on the festival's closing night, November 19 at the Grande Bibliothèque Auditorium.

The filmmaker will be in Montreal from November 18 to 20. Interviews are available upon request.

Contact : Caroline Rompré | Press Relations Officer | 514.778.9294 | caroline.rompre@gmail.com